Edgewater Fullscope to Showcase Unique Industry Solutions at National Association of Home Builders— International Builders Show (IBS)

Athens, AL, Dec. 28, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Athens, AL — Edgewater Fullscope, a leading provider of Microsoft Dynamics 365 (formerly Dynamics AX and CRM) as well as BI and consulting services, will showcase unique industry solutions at the National Association of Home Builders-International Builders Show. NAHB will take place from January 9-11 at the Orange County Convention Center in Orlando, FL.

Edgewater Fullscope will be in booth W7793, providing insight into how Microsoft's Dynamics 365 solution will deliver successful business transformations that drive industry growth. Attendees can stop by to learn why building products manufacturers trust Microsoft Solutions, implemented by Fullscope to meet pricing, efficiency, and customer requirements. We will showcase how manufacturers would use Microsoft technology— Dynamics 365/ERP, CRM and Business Intelligence solutions to help solve the toughest business challenges.

The NAHB conference offers professionals involved in the residential or light commercial construction industries— home builders, remodelers, realtors etc. the opportunity to gather industry insight from the top manufacturers and suppliers from around the world. More than 1400 exhibitors will showcase the latest and most in-demand products.

Join Edgewater Fullscope at the NAHB International Builder's Show to develop your strategic roadmap and explore what is possible through digital transformation.
